

Reading email is like reading postal mail.
I feel that tapping internet communications (email) is like opening someone's mail.
person to person communication should be treated as sacred.